Hi there.. I need installed for Autocad 2010 LT for windows 7 64bits please? Cheers. I have CAD LT 2010, I have successfully installed Autocad on windows 7 x64 but after installation it was not showing on Windows control panel. How do I get it appear on Windows Control Panel? There is no "User Control Panel. So you are ready to start with developing your own Cannabis business in Canada? Well, it is not as easy as you think! First of all, if you are planning to do business in the legal cannabis market in Canada, you should have a background on the Canadian Marijuana Laws (CML). Canada makes it incredibly hard to launch Cannabis brands. I am not just referring to the regulatory environment, but mainly to the taxes imposed. For example, there is a 15% tax on sales of cannabis and as a producer, you can get the tax back if you transfer the cannabis to your licensed producer. The original idea of this tax was to bring revenue into the government, but the way they are applying it is a headache for small producers. Instead of putting more money into a government that has a debt of $562 billion and deficit of $21 billion, this money could have been used for many other productive purposes. Besides this, a new law was enacted in October, 2018, which added an additional 10% tax on imports of cannabis. At the time of writing this post, the date is set as January 1, 2019. So, if you are importing your raw materials from other countries, it can raise the cost of your imports by 10%. So, what are the companies that are able to make an international difference? What are the companies that are taking advantage of this tax hike to launch Cannabis businesses worldwide? Cannabis Seeker – A First-Hand Experience Ever since I was a teenager, I had an interest in the Cannabis industry. I started my career in the legal cannabis industry and the only thing I am really good at is writing about the industry. I spend most of my time writing about Canada's legal Cannabis market. Why writing? The reasons are simple. I have always been interested in the world of cannabis. The legal industry is growing at a rapid pace and that is why I am constantly looking for the latest stories that can impact the market and make our industry better. I'm sure that you have heard about the recent announcement that the government is making a move to regulate the 82157476af
